There have been serious disagreements over the appointment of Mullah Mohammad Hassan Akhund between Khalifa Sirajuddin Haqqani and Mullah Baradar. Mullah Baradar and Haqqani Network have been in talks for two weeks to become Taliban prime minister.

- As a result of the disputes, Mullah Baradar is scheduled to resign.

Taliban fighters join ISIS and Resistance

- Every day, the Uzbek, Tajik, Badakhshani, and Takhari Taliban are beaten by the Helmand and Kandahari Taliban in Kabul. This situation has caused dissatisfaction among the Tajik and Uzbek Taliban, most of whom have left the Taliban and joined ISIS or the Resistance Front.

Haji Forqan in Pol-e-Khomri, Baghlan

 for months, It was rumored that Haji Forqan was killed and replaced by a creative mirror image*

Due to threats after the identity of the leader of East Turkestan was revealed, Haji Forqan stayed for more than seven months, primarily in Badakhshan and never in one place for long. Monitoring foreign fighters and recording meetings gave us a good insight into Forqan's travels and strategies.

Tradecraft by the Elusive leader of ETIM

In the past decade, Haji Forqan has always avoided public spaces, and pictures of him are very rare, indicating intelligence tradecraft. His current security teams made it impossible for our (counter-) surveillance to take photographs or videos without being noticed.

Resolved - Photos of Haji Forqan ETIM leader on April 28, 2022

Reports and analysis by colleagues:

The Taliban's ties with terrorist groups

Between 1990 and 1996, the Taliban had forged strong ties with terrorist groups when Afghanistan became a base for the terrorist. These groups consider jihadism their profession and carry out terrorist activities in Afghanistan.

The Taliban liaised with terrorist groups such as in East Turkestan, the Islamic Movement of Uzbekistan, and the Jamaat Ansarullah of Tajikistan, which assisted the Taliban in demining and preparing explosives, and training guerrilla warfare to help the Taliban;

Pakistan's support for the Taliban made it a major terrorist group, and it had strong ties with al-Qaeda. Most Taliban leaders merged with al-Qaeda and still are. ISIS is backed and supported by foreign elements in Afghanistan. Several key Taliban commanders have resigned and joined ISIS since it re-emerged in Afghanistan.

ISIS first announced its presence in Nangarhar province, where members of the group were also from, and carried out a series of atrocities against the people of Nangarhar. This group was then destroyed after a series of operations by the former Afghan government, and a number of the group's commanders were killed. This group then extended to Kunar-e-Nuristan provinces, the northern provinces of Baghlan, Kunduz, Takhar, and Mazar-e-Badakhshan, where they started again.

Recently, ISIS has launched a series of terrorist attacks in these provinces and plans to carry out several more bloody attacks on Shia religious mosques in Kabul and other regions. The main targets are Mosques and the educational and religious centers of the Shia s.

Abdul Ghani, known as Haji Forqan

The three foreign terrorist groups in the northern provinces are led by a man named Abdul Ghani, known as Haji Forqan, and their base is in the Khostak Valley of Jurm district. There are also four small bases. The Haji Forqan terrorist group is responsible for foreign terrorist groups, including Tajikistan, Uzbekistan, Uyghur of China, and Chechens. Their relations with the Taliban are excellent, especially with the Haqqani network. During the previous government of Afghanistan, these bases in Badakhshan, led by Haji Forqan, provided the Taliban with all the facilities for repairing light and heavy weapons. Also, mine, medical assistance, and other facilities were provided by Haji Forqan.

Qari Fasihuddin, then governor of the Taliban for Badakhshan, obeyed Haji Forqan and led Haji Forqan in all operations against the former government. Mawlawi Amanuddin then became the governor of the Taliban for Badakhshan, where Amanuddin also participated in all operations under the direction and order of Haji Forqan. Foreign terrorists from Uzbekistan, Chechnya, and Tajikistan also took part in all operations with the Taliban.

During the fall of the previous government, they carried out operations with them. And now that Fasihuddin Levi Drastiz of the Ministry of Defense of the Islamic Emirate and Mawlawi Amanuddin are also commanders of the air force, they support the foreign elements of this group in Badakhshan and other northern provinces.

The number of people related to Haji Forqan in Badakhshan province reaches 900, including 250 families. A number of foreigners belonging to Haji Forqan group, Uzbek nationals, live in Khostak Jarm and Baharak districts of Badakhshan province, where they marry Afghan women and live with their families.

The members of this group have spoken to the locals in the area that they are "seeking revenge on Tajikistan, Uzbekistan, China, and Russia." The number of members of this group is increasing daily. This group has been planning special terrorist operations in the north of Afghanistan and the mentioned countries. A rocket fired from the Afghan border into Uzbekistan recently was fired by the same groups. These groups are expanding their attacks on neighboring countries.

Haji Forqan himself, who recently traveled freely to different provinces of Afghanistan like Nangarhar, Logar, Kandahar, Helmand, was told by the Taliban leadership that he could not travel without informing the leadership of the Islamic Emirate. This has led to a darkening of relations between Haji Forqan and the Taliban Islamic Emirate. During a meeting, Haji Forqan alerted his commanders that in case of opposition, to be ready for a military response. The Haqqani Network has secretly said to Haji Forqan that there is no threat from the Taliban, but if you notice one, then give them a military response.

And several important commanders of the Taliban Islamic Emirate who support the elements of foreign fighters led by Haji Forqan will announce their support for Haji Forqan if they oppose the activities of this group and will leave the ranks of the Taliban Islamic Emirate. The new leadership of ISIS has asked Haji Forqan to officially declare allegiance to the group, which has not been the case so far yet but somehow supports the situation of ISIS in the north of Afghanistan.

[4:54 PM, 4/27/2022] @Ultrascan-research.com:

New report

26/4/2022

According to the report of colleagues:

ETIM related to Haji Forqan

In a secret meeting, Haji Forqan in Badakhshan province told his key people to prepare for any opposition from the Taliban to their groups and consolidate all their people in Khostak valley of Jarm district, Baharak district, and Faizabad city of Badakhshan.

Recently, the Taliban leadership imposed some travel restrictions on Haji Forqan and his men. They could not travel or visit other provinces of Afghanistan without informing the Taliban leadership. This caused frustration between East Turkestan and the Taliban leadership, which is what Haqqani network and Americans want.

However, Haji Forqan is traveling to the northern provinces with some of the most influential figures in the Taliban, including Qari Fasihuddin, Amanuddin, and the Haqqani network, which supports the group's foreign elements. He does not need the permission of the Taliban leadership.

The number of foreign fighters in Badakhshan and the northern provinces of Afghanistan has increased significantly, specifically in the border areas with neighboring Tajikistan, Uzbekistan, and China. These groups are planning a series of special terrorist operations in those countries soon. They believe that they will one day achieve their goals like the Taliban.

CHECHEN's arrived at Bagram military camp

Date: 23/4/2022

According to our source, one of the commanders of the Haqqani network in the Bagram military camp:

Last week, a group of 500 Chechens entered the Bagram military camp with the support of the Haqqani network. The Chechen group is to advance its operations and long-term plans. As many as 75 members of the Haqqani network who also arrived at Bagram military camp from Quetta in Pakistan are assigned to support and guide this Chechen terrorist group in the center and provinces of Afghanistan.

Most of the Chechens entered Pakistan from Syria and Iraq and have stayed for a while in Waziristan.

In order not to reveal their identity, the Haqqani network has provided the Chechens with armored vehicles and (fake) diplomatic red plates, enabling them to move around freely.

Specific Purpose – attack Shia

Afghanistan is currently at a critical juncture, and the Haqqani Network will use this group for special operations in Shia religious areas and attacks at Shia mosques. Not limited to – suicide and explosives attacks and assassinations.

[11:26 PM, 4/15/2022] @Ultrascan-research.com: New report:

Date: 15_4_2022

Based on the information provided by our colleagues:

ARMENIANS in Pul-e-Khumri

A number of 51 Armenians under the leadership of Akmal Rauf have been entering the country for a week through Spin Boldak in Kandahar province and are currently living in Pul-e-Khumri in Baghlan province under the supervision of Haji Forqan.

[11:26 PM, 4/15/2022] @Ultrascan-research.com: New report

Date: 15_4_2022

Based on the report of our colleagues:

Smuggling of red simab

Haji Forqan and Haji Salman have liaison officers in four provinces, Takhar, Badakhshan, Kunduz, and Baghlan, and smugglers who smuggle red simab. Our source adds that this red simab comes directly from Russia to the address of Haji Forqan and is sold by local commissioners even to Pakistan and India.

Red simab is the most expensive simab that is smuggled by Haji Forqan.

Part of Haji Forqan's work is smuggling and making money. He has become one of the most wealthy people in Afghanistan right now.

The income from smuggling guarantees that Haji Forqan can complete his long-term goals.

Although monthly hundreds of thousands of dollars come from abroad for the support of Haji Forqan, his vision is to seek certainty above the dependence on foreign financiers.

61 foreign fighters arrived in Badakhshan

According to colleagues, some 61 foreign fighters, including members of East Turkestan, Jamaat-e-Ansarullah, and the Islamic Movement of Uzbekistan, including Haji Salman himself, have arrived in Badakhshan from Baghlan, Kunduz, and Takhar provinces over the past week.

Because of the complaints by locals about the presence of foreign fighters in their areas, who were trying to buy houses, land, shops, and have fuel tanks. The Taliban in the above provinces were also dissatisfied with the foreigners.

In this regard, the local population has reacted; if this group wants to buy people's property in these areas, in the future, they will fight for happiness, which will become a big headache. Based on these considerations and the guidance of Qari Fasihuddin, 61 of them have been relocated to Badakhshan, and they are currently living in Feyzabad and Baharak.

It is noteworthy that these fighters in the four northeastern provinces have not settled in one place permanently and change their position on a weekly basis.

GDI to recruit former national security personnel

- The General Directorate of Intelligence of the Taliban, under the leadership of Abdul Haq Waseq, is trying again to recruit former national security personnel.

They do this for several purposes:

1- The Taliban group should not identify the national security personnel of the previous government as the Resistance Front or the intelligence networks of the neighboring countries but treat them as professionals.

2- The Taliban is deadlocked because the intelligence work process in Kabul and the provinces and does not know enough about advancing targeted and professional operational intelligence work programs. Taliban intelligence, still unable to manage surveillance and intelligence activities, wants to use former national security personnel.

3- The Taliban want to make it clear to the world that we have re-absorbed a part of the security apparatus of the country's armed forces, and there is no excuse for recognition.

Based on these principles, the Taliban in all provinces, including Kabul, has again asked their former national security officials, giving them 20,000 for each, 30,000 for the post-colonial posts, and 40,000 for the colonial posts for two months.

And also, for each of them, they have paid 20,000 Ramadan expenses and 10,000 Afghanis for their Eid expenses.

Former members of the country's national security do not welcome this, and they are afraid that there will be controversy in the future. For this reason, most of these former national security personnel did not respond to the Taliban's invitation.

The Taliban want to weaken their enemies with these actions.

- They have promised that all previous national security personnel will be recruited in a new reform and not threatened.

Resistance offices in Mashhad Iran

The Resistance Front and the Freedom Front leaders have a secret office in Mashhad, Iran. They have the support of the Iranian government, but inside Iran, they can not freely carry out political activities.

The Resistance Front, led by Ahmad Massoud, Amrullah Saleh, and the Freedom Front, led by Dr. Yasin Zia, coordinated the recruitment of former Afghan security forces and a series of guerrilla military operations against the Taliban in different provinces of Afghanistan.

Attacks by the Resistance and Freedom Front

Recent attacks launched by the Resistance Front, led by Ahmad Massoud, Amrullah Saleh, and the Freedom Front, led by Dr. Yasin Zia:

- an armed attack on the Versaj police headquarters, Dasht-e- Qala Takhar Intelligence Directorate.
 - an attack with explosives on a car of a Gujar commander of Taliban in Faizabad, Badakhshan.
 - an armed attack on the intelligence base in the Baharak district of Takhar.
 - an attack on a convoy of Taliban vehicles in the Divar-e-Tang-e-Rustaq area.
 - the assassination of several Taliban members on the outskirts of Taloqan in Takhar province.
- attacks on the Taliban in the Andarab district of Baghlan province, clearing several villages from the Taliban control, inflicting heavy casualties on the Taliban militia. The Taliban tried to regain the lost areas from the Resistance Front but could not inflict casualties, retreated, and were defeated in Andarab.
- Attacks on the Taliban in Panjshir province inflicted heavy casualties and liberated several villages from the Taliban.
- Attacks on the Taliban in several districts of Badakhshan liberated a few villages, now under the control of the Resistance Front. As a result, the Taliban struggled to regain their lost villages.

Taliban's shortage of troops

The Taliban face a shortage of troops because they are alone in the war. The Haqqani network does not currently cooperate with Taliban soldiers to fight against the Resistance Front and the Freedom Front.

Responsibility of the Ministry of Defense, not the Ministry of Interior

Sirajuddin Haqqani explicitly stated in a security meeting held two days ago that the war against the Resistance Front is the responsibility of the Ministry of Defense. Our soldiers are responsible for securing the cities. The duty of the Ministry of Interior soldiers is not to fight but to provide security for the cities, and our soldiers will not take part in the wars. We fought for twenty years, but power was not reasonably divided. Those who have more power in the system must fight and defend.

Leaders from the Taliban join ISIS*

Leaders of the Taliban and other Tajik and Uzbek Taliban groups have recently been relieved of their positions. Most of them have the spirit of joining ISIS, including Mawlawi Nooruddin, former Taliban governor of Takhar province Mawlawi Qader Hamed, district governor of Dasht-e-Qala district.

A few days ago, Mullah Fazel Mazlum, the Deputy Minister of Defense of the Taliban, had gone to Takhar, and two of the guards were killed. As a result, he was captured and transferred to the center of Takhar. He was later released in the middle of some of the Taliban leaders and returned to his post.

And Mawlawi Ismail Farooqi, Chah Ab district governor, and Abdul Razzaq Nezami, Baharak district governor. The Taliban leadership has also targeted the Uzbeks who have secret relations and inclinations with ISIS.

Cooperate with ISIS

Salahuddin Ayoubi, one of the prominent commanders of Uzbek descent in Faryabi, had recently traveled to Takhar province and Dasht-e-Qala district of Takhar and had secret meetings with the dismissed governor of Takhar, Mawlawi Nooruddin. Our colleagues add that they discussed their dissatisfaction with the Taliban leadership's prejudiced attitude during this private meeting and decided to cooperate in secret seriously with ISIS.

Provide safe havens for ISIS

Salahuddin Ayoubi instructs Uzbek commanders to provide safe havens for ISIS and not to take advantage of their activities. He added that you will secretly support them until ISIS becomes influential in Takhar province. Uzbek commanders are dissatisfied with the Taliban leadership's taste and prejudice against Uzbeks and their commanders. That is why they have joined and cooperated with ISIS.

Due to these considerations, Mullah Fazel, the Taliban Deputy Minister of Defense, was dragged to Takhar to examine the security and political situation in Takhar. During his visit to Takhar, Mullah Fazel found that Uzbek commanders were wholly dissatisfied with the Taliban leadership and gradually joined ISIS and opened the way for ISIS.

Resistance not interested in ISIS

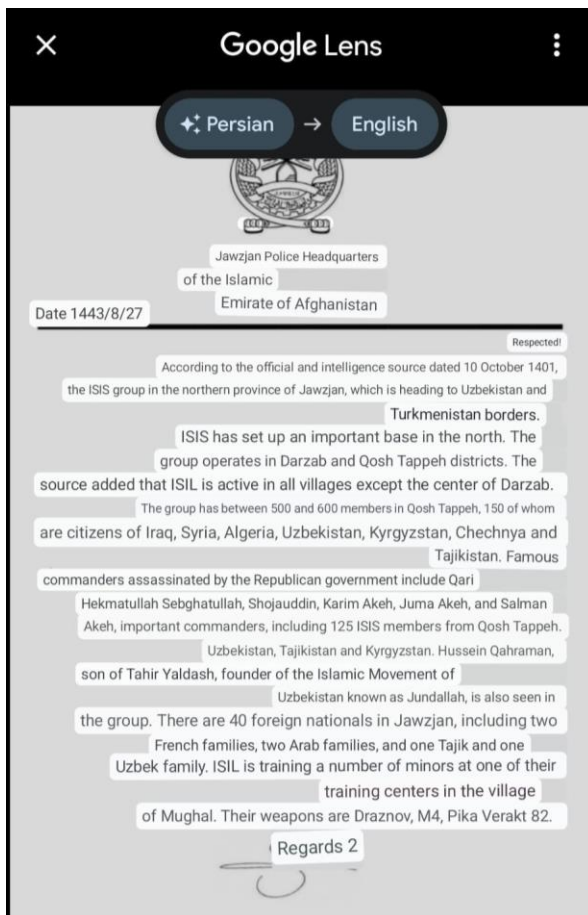

However, during calls made by the Resistance Front and the Freedom Front to the individuals mentioned above regarding their joining the front ranks revealed that they were not interested in ISIS.

Uzbek Taliban commanders are an extremist group that prefers to join ISIS above the Resistance Front. They know ISIS is growing, and the Haqqani Network has secretly supported the decision of Uzbek commanders to support ISIS. The Haqqani network is gradually separated from the Taliban regime. And it is trying to keep its troops ready for a long war against of Taliban and the resistance front. The Haqqani network is gradually releasing imprisoned members of ISIS.

Bagram airforce base

INTELLIGENCE USE ONLY

FIX THIS

The enemy appears driven and motivated by something other than ideology or funding. Every one of these events (could have) occurred as a result of a failure of imagination. The job is not to predict tomorrow based on yesterday. That's what academics do. The task is to prevent the end of tomorrow by using your brains and your imagination. If you don't identify and find the threat before it's too late, you might be held responsible for the single largest intelligence fumble since a flight instruction school in Florida failed to grasp the significance of a 19-year-old Al-Qaeda terrorist saying he didn't need to learn how to land.

Some paid advice

Ultimately, one can find them all to be human failures.

But suppose you believe that wars and insurgencies resulted from intelligence failures, or even worse, a lack of strategy. In that case, consider yourself lucky because nobody will tell you their actual military strategy and intelligence policies for you only to have an opinion. No, you are at the receiving end of a successful strategy and intelligence narrative.

A context of intelligence operations

Since 2007 the intelligence services prepared for a significant shift in real US geo-policy, military power, and intelligence.

An essential part of that shift, leaving war zones and decreasing its military presence in partner countries, occurs. It is explicitly cutting off Iran, Pakistan, and Israel. Allocated financial DoD resources show that what remains are substantial special operations (US-SOCOM) [...] a prioritized global monitor function. [...]

Why HUMINT

Why do we need secret agents? Isn't it all rather quaint?

Is it that we see a different, more frightening world than you do?

Our enemies are no longer nations and do not exist on a map but are non-state actors and unknown individuals. Look around you, who do you fear? Can you see a face, a uniform, a flag? No. Yet, before breakfast in their pajamas, they can do more damage from their laptops than an intelligence agent can during a year in the field. Online organized crime doesn't know law and order, has a Wild West mentality, and is lawless to the core. Anarchy.

While transparency became fashionable in the West, the world is not more transparent now. Today it's more opaque, in the shadows, and that's where we do battle. So, before you declare that irrelevant, ask yourselves, how safe do you feel?
